INDIAN PRINCE HONORED.
LONDON—India's youngest war prince has just won the Military Cross for marked gallantry. He is Second Lieutenant Rana Jodha Jung Bahadur of the 39th Garhwal Rifles, grandson of the Maharajah of Nepal. The official account of his bravery says: "During a violent attack north of the La Basse Canal, he commanded a tough company with great ability and conspicuous gallantry in face of a severe fire from rifles, machine guns, hand grenades and bombs. His bravery was previously observed on September 25, when he led his men with marked gallantry right up to the German wire under heavy rifle and machine gun fire."
The Prince is now in a London hospital recovering from two wounds received in the La Basse encounter. He is something less than twenty-five years old.
"I take my men into action armed with kukris as well as rifles," he told an interviewer at the hospital, "but we don't often get a chance to use the kukris. When we get near the enemy, they always surrender. They have heard of our kukris."
"In peace and war we keep up our skill in the use of the kukri. At our principal festival every man has to use his knife. We have goats and buffaloes for victims. If a man takes a stroke to dispatch his animal, instead of doing it with one clean stroke, he is disgraced."

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK
It's Grandmother's recipe to bring color, lustre and thickness to hair when faded, streaked or gray.
That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray, streaked and looks dry, wispy and scraggy, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur ennobles its appearance a hundred fold.
Don't bother to prepare the tonic; you can get from any drug store a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," ready to use. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color, thickness and lustre of your hair and remove dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair.
Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy, lustrous and abundant.
